

Homework:

Add the following operators to the Array class:

1. The '+', add the corresponding number together, just like vector plus vector. Do not forget to check they have the same size.
2. The '[]', retrieve the specified element of the array.
3. The '<<', output the array

Create a main function to test your overloaded operators.

Zip your code, with a readme file and submit to Blackboard.